

The college follows the Programme Outcomes (POs) and Course Outcomes (Cos) for all programmes as delineated in the syllabus of the affiliated university. The soft copy of the syllabus is uploaded on the college website, while the hard copies of the syllabus remain available in all the departments for ready reference of teachers and students. The faculty members articulate the learning objectives and the expected outcomes for each course at the beginning of both the odd and even semesters. This helps the students appreciate various topics being covered in the class as they realize their importance and relevance.

The thrust of the programs and the courses are also explained, in detail, at the time of the Induction Programme at the start of the session. This induction programme is conducted by the college to make the students well-versed with the various programs and courses offered by the college as also their outcomes. They are also told about various job opportunities available after the successful competition of these programs and courses. Doubts, if any, are explained and cleared and the students are also encouraged to opt for the programs and courses in which they are genuinely interested so that they can really do justice and enjoy the profession they may go in for.
